

September 2020 Newsletter

The meeting was held on August 12. Just some reminders to pass along.

Boats will need to be removed from the lake area before winter. This was added to the Rules last year.

The trails and the range will be closed starting October 1 due to deer season starting. The kids track will still be open. Starting Oct 1, hunters are to sign in at the mailbox just past dump station. Paper and pencil provided, please write full name, phone number, date, time in and time out. Starting January 1, ATV/UTV riders going past the mailbox will also need to sign in with the same information.

Halloween festivities are planned for Saturday, October 24, 2020. Trick or Treating to start at 5pm around campground. Weiner Roast at 6pm with Chili/Soup Cook Off. Costume contest (children up to age 15) and Pumpkin Carving/Decorating contest shortly after. Please bring own pumpkin already carved/decorated. Weather permitting these activities will be held at the Pavilion; will be at clubhouse if bad weather. KCCSC will provide hotdogs, buns and tableware. Deserts and Side Dishes welcomed!

A Fall Workday has been scheduled for Sunday, October 25 and the water to the campground is planned to be shut off at that time.

Please turn in requests for Winter Camping to a current Board member
